WARNING

18 USC Sec. 1001 provides, among other things, that whoever knowingly and willfully makes or uses a document or writing containing any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States, shall be fined, not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

(The following statement of purpose and uses is provided pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579)

The authority to collect information regarding your citizenship or immigration status is derived from Title IV of the Personal Responsibilities and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193. The primary use of this information is by the FEMA Disaster Housing Program and the State IFG Program to determine your eligibility for assistance. Additional disclosure of this information may be made to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) for audit of the data provided. Furnishing the information sought by this declaration is voluntary, but must be provided to obtain or retain a benefit. Failure to provide the information will result in disapproval of your request for housing or IFG assistance.

This request for information is not subject to coordination with or clearance of the Office of management and Budget under the provision of chapter 35 of Title 44 of the United States Code.
