

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	1
Foreword	3
Executive Summary	7
Perspective	17
Case Studies	19
City of Fullerton	19
City of Long Beach	25
City of Palo Alto	35
City of Sonoma.....	41
City of Torrance	47
City of Upland	53
City of West Hollywood	59
Program Highlights	65
Town of Arroyo Grande	66
City of Berkeley	67
City of Inglewood.....	68
City of La Verne	69
City of San Diego	70
City of San Jose	71
City of San Mateo	73
City of Vacaville	74

TABLE OF CONTENTS (Continued)

Using Zoning as Incentive to Retrofit	75
Types of Incentives	75
Density/Intensity Bonuses	76
Transfer of Development Rights (TDR)	76
Reduction in Development Standards	77
Relief from Nonconforming Provisions	77
New Occupancy of a URM or Other Potentially Hazardous Buildings.....	78
Example of an Incentive Program for Seismic Hazard Upgrading Using Zoning Incentives	79
Local Government Financing Options.	81
The Scope of the Financing Problem: Attainability, Affordability and Economic Incentive	81
Bank Lending	84
Some Sources of Funds	85
State and Federal Programs.	87
California Housing Rehabilitation Program.....	88
Community Development Block Grants	91
The Home Program	96
The Small Business Administration (SBA)	98

TABLE OF CONTENTS (Continued)

Local Government Financing Options (continued)

Bond Programs	99
General Obligation Bonds	100
Marks-Foran Residential Rehabilitation Act.....	101
Marks Historic Bond Act	102
Mello-Roos Community Facilities District	104
Public Purpose Bonds.....	106
Special Assessment District	107
Tax Increment Financing or Tax Allocation Bonds.....	110
California State Seismic Legislation	111
The URM Law	111
Enforcement of Local Ordinances.....	112
Concerns of Local Jurisdictions: Gift of Public Funds, Separation of Church and State, and Liability	112
Special Assessment, Mello-Roos and General Obligation Bonds	114
Redevelopment Agencies	115
State Reaching Out Directly to Property Owners	116
Future Directions in Hazard Mitigation	117
Liability Implications and Considerations	121
Background	121
The Analysis.....	122

TABLE OF CONTENTS (Continued)

Liability Implications and Considerations (continued)

Private Owner Liability	122
Local Government Liability	123
The "Act of God" Defense	124
Economic Issues Associated with Liability Exposure	125
Authority of Local Governments to Conduct Surveys and Require Retrofitting.....	125
Contacts.....	127
Index.....	131

Exhibits to Case Studies (located with their respective case studies)

City of Fullerton	F-1
• Seismic Loan Program - Loan Program Guidelines
City of Long Beach	LB-1
• Sample letters to property owners sent over the course of the financing process
City of Palo Alto	PA-1
• City of Palo Alto Ordinance #3666
City of Sonoma	S-1
• City of Sonoma Ordinance #90-15
• A&E Grants for Seismic Upgrading and Permit Fee Waiver Program
• Sample A&E Reimbursement Grant Application
• About City of Sonoma's Seismic Upgrading Program

TABLE OF CONTENTS (Continued)

Exhibits to Case Studies (continued)

City of Upland	U-1
• Town Center Construction Loan Program
• Town Center Commercial Rehabilitation Rebate Program
• Excerpts from Commercial Rehabilitation Rebate Program Application Package:
+ Cover Letter
+ Final Application
+ Program Guidelines
+ Program Flow Chart
+ Facade Improvement Guidelines
+ Owner's Participation Agreement
+ Selection Criteria for Engineering Services
+ Directive for the Processing of Plans for Structural Modifications of Unreinforced Masonry Buildings

Charts and Tables

"Probabilities of Large Earthquakes Occurring in Three California Regions"	3
"Retrofit Incentive Programs: A Quick Look"	10
"Program Highlights: A Quick Look"	14
City of Long Beach: Value-to-Lien Ratios	31
City of Palo Alto: Program Results	39
City of Sonoma: Timing of Implementation	42
City of Torrance: Value-to-Lien Ratios	51
California Housing Rehabilitation Program: Funding Available	88
Community Development Block Grants	93