

Deadline to Apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance Extended

Release Date: septiembre 1, 2023

The U.S. Department of Labor has extended the application deadline for Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA). DUA is a federal program designed to help people who lost their jobs because of a natural disaster. This program gives temporary income to those who don't qualify for regular Unemployment Insurance (UI).

Qualified applicants in Caledonia, Chittenden, Lamoille, Orange, Orleans, Rutland, Washington, Windham and Windsor counties now have until Sept. 29, 2023, to apply for benefits.

The new deadline of Sept. 29 provides uniformity for all Vermonters in the designated counties. The state encourages those eligible to apply for the DUA benefits as soon as possible.

Before you can apply for DUA, you must apply for regular UI benefits first. If you do not qualify, the Vermont Department of Labor will provide you with the application for DUA.

If you believe you may qualify for UI or DUA, take the following steps:

- File an initial Unemployment Insurance claim online or call 877-214-3330 Monday through Friday. Based on your circumstances the Department of Labor will determine if you are eligible for regular UI or DUA.
- If you are eligible for regular UI, you will need to log in to the regular UI Online Claimant portal at Vermont Department of Labor Claimant Portal each week you are unemployed and submit a claim.
- If you are eligible for DUA, you will receive instructions on how to file for a weekly claim for each week you are unemployed due to the disaster.

You will be asked on the initial claim form if you are able and available for work. If you are unable to work due to the July storms, you should select "yes" – if it
