

More Than $58.5 Million in Federal Assistance Already Approved for Southeast Michiganders

Release Date: Août 6, 2021

CHICAGO – More than $58.5 million has already been approved in FEMA grants and U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) disaster loans to help residents affected by the June 25-26, 2021 flooding in southeast Michigan.

Here is a snapshot of the disaster recovery effort as of August 4:

- More than 17,240 households have been approved for $51.2 million in FEMA grant funding, including:
 - More than $43.6 million in housing grants, including short-term rental assistance and home repair costs.
 - Nearly $7.59 million approved for other essential disaster-related needs such as expenses related to medical, dental and lost personal possessions.
- More than 26,588 home inspections have been completed.
- Five Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs) and two Document Drop-off Centers (DDCs) have been opened in the declared areas of Wayne and Washtenaw counties, to provide individuals with in-person help through their application process. Mobile Registration Centers are also popping up, the most recent one at the VA Medical Center in Detroit.
- Mitigation specialists have spoken with more than 500 individuals in two hardware stores providing advice on preventing flood damage and removing mold and mildew.
- National Flood Insurance Program has paid out more than $365,400 in flood insurance
- The SBA has approved $7.3 million in low-interest disaster loans, with more than 243 loan applications approved.

Individuals in Washtenaw and Wayne counties with uninsured or under insured losses from the June 25 -26 storms are encouraged to apply for federal assistance.
