

FEMA Region 3 Helps Bereaved Families, Reaches COVID Funeral Cost Milestone

Release Date: Mars 30, 2022

PHILADELPHIA - The Federal Emergency Management Agency's mission is to help people. In doing so, FEMA Region 3 has marked an important milestone in its COVID-19 operation: funeral assistance funds provided to families of applicants have topped $208 million.

The funds have gone to more than 30,000 bereaved families in the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia. Here are the totals as of March 25, 2022:

DC: $4,507,961

DE: $5,773,609

MD: $34,278,813

PA: $103,879,215

VA: $44,667,929

WV: $14,983,540

Region 3 staff members have gone the extra mile to spread the word about the funeral assistance program, working extensively with government colleagues at all levels, as well as private sector partners.

"Our hearts go out to the thousands of families in Region 3 that have suffered financial stress due to funeral expenses for their loved ones," FEMA Region 3 Regional Administrator MaryAnn Tierney said. "We want to assure families that we're here to help." Reaching the $200 million mark is a tangible sign of our commitment to the grieving families in our region."
