

Additional Counties Now Eligible for FEMA Assistance

Release Date: Mai 25, 2023

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Residents of Butte County are now eligible to apply to FEMA's Individual Assistance program for the severe storms and flooding that began on Feb. 21, 2023.

In addition, El Dorado, Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mono, Napa, Nevada, Sacramento, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara and Shasta counties are now eligible for FEMA Public Assistance, which reimburses local and state government agencies for the costs of emergency response, debris removal and restoration of disaster-damaged public facilities and infrastructure.

Butte County joins several previously designated counties for Individual Assistance. These include Kern, Madera, Mariposa, Mendocino, Mono, Monterey, San Benito, San Bernardino, Santa Cruz, Tulare and Tuolumne.

Survivors in these counties may be eligible for grants to help pay for temporary housing and essential home repairs as well as other serious disaster-related needs, such as replacement of damaged essential personal property and expenses for transportation, childcare, moving and storage.

Individuals and families can apply for this assistance by visiting DisasterAssistance.gov or downloading the FEMA mobile app. Applicants can also call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. Helpline operators speak many languages and lines are open from 4 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Press 2 for Spanish. Press 3 for an interpreter who speaks your language. If you use video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service. The deadline to apply is June 5, 2023.

Houses of worship and certain nonprofit organizations may also be eligible for FEMA assistance through its Public Assistance program, which also encourages protection of damaged facilities from future events by providing assistance for hazard mitigation measures during the recovery process. Counties that have
