

FEMA Disaster Recovery Center to Open in Richland County

Release Date: Me 13, 2024

COLUMBUS – A temporary FEMA Disaster Recovery Center will open Tuesday, May 14 in Richland County to help residents kickstart their recovery after the March 14 tornadoes.

Specialists from FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration will be at the centers to help survivors apply for federal disaster assistance, upload documents, learn about ways to make their property more disaster resistant, and get their questions answered in person.

The Richland County center will be open temporarily at the following location, days and hours:

Plymouth Township Hall

7025 Kuhn Road

Shelby, OH 44875

Hours: Tues. - Thurs. 7:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m., May 14 – May 16. This center will close Thursday, May 16 at 6:30 pm.

Additional recovery centers will be opening in other impacted counties soon. To find the center nearest you, visit FEMA.gov/DRC. Survivors may visit any center for assistance.

Assistance in languages other than English, including American sign language, and translated materials are available at these centers. Disaster Recovery Center locations are chosen for their accessibility, with the goal of reaching as many people as possible. Accessible parking spaces are available at all centers.

Survivors don't need to visit a Disaster Recovery Center to apply for FEMA assistance. To apply without visiting a center, go online to DisasterAssistance.gov,
