

FEMA Issues Public Notice for Tropical Cyclone Eight, North Carolina

Release Date: Oktòb 28, 2024

RALEIGH, N.C. – A public notice has been posted describing available FEMA assistance and proposed FEMA-funded actions, including activities that may affect historic properties, threatened and endangered species, critical habitats, wetlands and floodplains in North Carolina.

FEMA is required by law to provide public notice of its intent to provide federal assistance and grant opportunities via the Public Assistance and Hazard Mitigation Grant Programs following the major disaster declaration for Tropical Cyclone Eight.

The public notice is posted on FEMA’s disaster web page at fema.gov/disaster-federal-register-notice/4837-dr-nc-public-notice-001.

This may be the only public notice. Interested persons may obtain information about these actions or a specific project by writing to the Federal Emergency Management Agency Region 4, 3005 Chamblee Tucker Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30341-4112, or by email to FEMA-R4EHP@fema.dhs.gov. Please include in the subject line of the email, “DR-4837-nc EHAD.” Comments should be sent in writing within 30 days of the date of this notice.
