

Pasadena Convention Center Disaster Recovery Center to Close Early Thursday

Release Date: 11? 1, 2017

AUSTIN, Texas – The State of Texas/FEMA Disaster Recovery Center (DRC) at the Pasadena Convention Center in Pasadena will close two hours early at 5 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 2.

It will resume regular hours Friday, Nov. 3, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

It offers in-person support to individuals and businesses in counties included in the Texas federal disaster declaration for Hurricane Harvey and the subsequent floods.

Recovery specialists from FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), the state and other agencies are at the center to talk about assistance and to help anyone who needs guidance in filing an application. The center is at:

Pasadena Convention Center
7902 Fairmont Parkway
Pasadena, TX 77507

Temporary hours, Thursday Nov. 2, 2017—9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Normal hours resume, Friday Nov. 3, 2017 until further notice.

Normal hours of operation: Monday-Saturday—9a.m. to 7 p.m. Sundays—noon to 5 p.m.

SBA's disaster assistance employees are committed to helping businesses and residents rebuild as quickly as possible. SBA representatives are available to answer questions about SBA's disaster loan program and help business owners and residents apply to SBA.

The Disaster Recovery Center is accessible to people with disabilities. It has assistive technology equipment, allowing disaster survivors to use amplified telephones, phones that display text, amplified listening devices for people with hearing loss and magnifiers for people with vision loss. Video Remote Interpreting is available, and in-person sign language is available by request. The center also has accessible parking, ramps and restrooms.
