In an effort to help ease the financial burden on those who are unemployed because of the COVID-19 pandemic, President Trump has authorized FEMA to use Stafford Act disaster relief funds to provide supplemental payments for lost wages due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Up to $44 billion in Disaster Relief Funding is available to support this initiative.

To help meet the needs of the American people, the FEMA Administrator is authorized to award grants to state and territory governments to administer supplemental payments for lost wages under Other Needs Assistance, in accordance with section 408 (e)(2) of the Stafford Act (42 U.S.C. 5174 (e)(2)) and 44 C.F.R. §206.119(c)(6)(ii) for major disasters declared by the President pursuant to section 401 of the Stafford Act (42 U.S.C. § 5170) for COVID-19, to eligible individuals under the following conditions:

- The governor agrees to the cost sharing requirement of 42 U.S.C. § 5174(g)(2), with the understanding that states or territories must demonstrate their 25 percent of the cost share was provided from non-federal funds or federal funds that are authorized to be applied toward this cost share.
- The governor agrees to administer supplemental payments for lost wages in conjunction with the state unemployment insurance system or agency, using their existing policies and process for adjudicating appeals from individuals seeking benefits, and to recover improperly provided payments.
- FEMA assistance provided to eligible individuals under this program may continue until:
 - The Disaster Relief Fund (DRF) balance reaches $25 billion;
 - Congress enacts a replacement unemployment relief program; or
 - The program end date of no later than December 27, 2020.
- Eligible individuals are:

FEMA

- Recipients of at least $100 per week of any of the following benefits for the week they are seeking unemployment benefits, beginning August 1, 2020:
 - Unemployment compensation, including Unemployment Compensation for Federal Employees (UCFE) and Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Service members (UCX)
 - Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation
 - Pandemic Unemployment Assistance
 - Extended Benefits
 - Short-Time Compensation
 - Trade Readjustment Allowance
 - Payments under the Self-Employment Assistance program
- Individuals must self-certify that they are unemployed, partially unemployed, or unable or unavailable to work due to disruptions caused by COVID-19.
- A state's or territory's delivery of supplemental payments for lost wages is contingent upon an approval of a State Administrative Plan, which describes the partnership between FEMA and the state or territory for delivering assistance.
- Upon grant approval and obligation of funds, states or territories may provide supplemental lost wages payments to eligible individuals retroactively back to August 1, 2020.
