

Forks Disaster Recovery Center Will Remain Open

Release Date: 1? 23, 2022

LACEY, Wash. – The Disaster Recovery Center in Forks (Clallam County) will remain open to help survivors of the November flooding apply for FEMA assistance. The center is operated by FEMA and the Washington State Military Department's Emergency Management Division.

Center location:

- ICN Building, 71 N. Spartan Ave., Forks, WA 98331

The center is open Monday – Saturday 9 a.m. – 8 p.m., Sunday noon – 6 p.m. through Feb. 4, when the center will cease operation at 8 p.m.

Recovery specialists from FEMA, the U.S. Small Business Administration and Washington state agencies will be available to help residents of Clallam, Skagit and Whatcom counties, including the Lummi Nation, Nooksack Indian Tribe, the Quileute Nation and other tribes in the three counties, apply for federal assistance and receive information about help available for homeowners, renters and business owners.

It is not necessary to go to a center to apply for assistance. Residents in the designated counties can apply online at disasterassistance.gov, call 800-621-3362, or use the FEMA mobile app. If you use a relay service, such as video relay (VRS), captioned telephone or other service, give FEMA the number for that service.

FEMA financial assistance may include money for temporary housing, basic home repairs or other disaster-related needs such as childcare, transportation and medical, funeral or dental expenses.
