- Rental Assistance if you need to relocate because of flood damage
- Personal Property that was damaged or destroyed by flooding
- Lodging Reimbursement if you've had to stay in a hotel temporarily
- Basic Home Repairs for homeowners whose primary residence was damaged by flooding
- Other Serious Needs caused by recent flooding

In addition to the assistance listed, please note the following:

- Only one application per household
- FEMA does not pay for lost or spoiled food

FEMA

- By law, FEMA is not allowed to duplicate insurance payments or assistance provided by other sources

Homeowners and Renters: If you have been referred to SBA for a disaster loan, please submit the application. Submitting the SBA application makes it possible for you to be considered for additional grants. If you qualify for a loan, you will have that resource available if you choose to accept it.

Please Stay in Touch with FEMA

- If you were directly affected by the flooding – and have un-met needs – please stay in touch.
- Please tell FEMA about your specific needs.
- FEMA works with everyone – renters and homeowners – on a case-by-case basis.
