

Kentuckians: Please Keep in Touch with FEMA

Release Date: 9? 19, 2022

FRANKFORT, Ky. – Kentuckians who applied for assistance from FEMA are asked to please stay in touch with the agency to update application details with any new information.

In Kentucky, as of Sept. 19, 772 homeowners currently ineligible for housing assistance are ineligible due to a missed FEMA inspection or an inspector not being able to contact the homeowner. For renters this number is 950.

It is critical to keep in touch with FEMA. Missing or out of date information could slow much needed disaster assistance. Information that needs to be updated may include:

- Changes in your housing situation, phone number or mailing address.
- Adding or removing the name of a person designated to speak for you.
- Adding or changing names of household members and number of people living in the home.
- Changes in your application for FEMA help.
- Correcting or verifying home and property damage.
- Updating your payment preference.

If survivors have applied for assistance and not heard from FEMA, they are asked to call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 or visit a disaster recovery center in your area to speak face-to face with FEMA personnel. To find a center near you visit fema.gov/drc.

Homeowners and renters in Breathitt, Clay, Floyd, Knott, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Martin, Owsley, Perry, Pike and Whitley counties can apply for assistance by calling 800-621-3362, online at disasterassistance.gov, or by using the FEMA mobile app. If you use a relay service, such as video relay (VRS), captioned telephone or other service, give FEMA the number for that service.
