FEMA

After the Disaster Recovery Centers close, personalized assistance with FEMA-related questions will still be available to residents over the phone and virtually.

Many of the services that have been available at the Disaster Recovery Center are available through DisasterAssistance.gov, the FEMA mobile app or by calling the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621-FEMA (3362) anytime from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week until further notice. Shorter wait times are more likely in the mornings or evenings. Multilingual operators are available. Anyone using a relay service, such as video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, can give FEMA the number for that service.

Individuals can do the following online or by calling the helpline:

- Apply for federal disaster assistance
- Provide a change of address, telephone and bank account numbers, and insurance information to avoid disaster assistance processing delays
- Receive information about FEMA home inspections
- Ask questions about a letter from FEMA
- Learn how to appeal a FEMA decision
