- 258 individuals and households have been approved for nearly $2.4 million in federal grants through FEMA's Individuals and Households Program.
- More than $6.9 million in U.S. Small Business Administration low-interest disaster loans have been approved for 54 homeowners and renters and one business as of Mar. 12.
- Survivors who applied with FEMA or have questions about the disaster assistance or the appeals process, can contact FEMA the following ways: Visit DisasterAssistance.gov; download the FEMA app; or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Housing Assistance:

- More than $1.9 million in grants approved for housing repairs or replacement for 150 homeowners.
- $459,033 in grants have been approved for personal property, transportation and other disaster-related serious needs for 220 applicants.
- 359 home inspections have been issued with 99 percent completed.

Direct Temporary Housing

- Lincoln County has been approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Jackson, Lane, Linn and Marion Counties.
- FEMA continues licensing qualified Lincoln County families into temporary housing units.
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.

- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of Mar. 16, disaster-wide, FEMA has obligated 74 project worksheets and more than $160 million in Public Assistance funding.
