

FEMA Recognizes 2021 National Preparedness Month Congressional Co-Chairs

Release Date: September 8, 2021

WASHINGTON -- September is National Preparedness Month, a yearly observance to remind everyone how important it is for individuals, families and communities to be prepared for disasters and emergencies that can happen at any time.

FEMA is honored to announce this year's Congressional co-chairs. We welcome their collaboration on this mission and appreciate their commitment to promoting preparedness across the nation and in their districts. With their support, we can build a nation more resilient to future disasters.

The following co-chairs have embodied the spirit of this year's National Preparedness Month theme, "Prepare to Protect" and will highlight within their districts how preparing for a disaster is protecting everyone you love:
