

$54 Million Approved for St. Louis Area Residents: FEMA Application Deadline One Month Away, on October 7

Release Date: September 6, 2022

More than $54 million in federal funding has been approved for people affected by the July 25—28 flooding and severe storms in the St. Louis area in Missouri.

- FEMA has approved $28.7 million in Individual Assistance grants for renters and homeowners for damage and serious needs not covered by insurance.
- FEMA's National Flood Insurance Program has paid $14.4 million in claims for flood insurance policyholders.
- The U.S. Small Business Administration has approved $11.2 million in disaster loans for homeowners, renters and businesses.

The deadline to apply with FEMA is October 7.

People affected by the disaster in St. Louis City, St. Louis County and St. Charles County have three ways to apply and stay in touch with FEMA:

- Call: 1-800-621-FEMA (3362)
- Go Online: DisasterAssistance.gov
- Visit any Disaster Recovery Center

If you use a relay service, such as video relay (VRS), captioned telephone or other service, give FEMA the number for that service. Helpline operators are available from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Press 2 for Spanish. Press 3 for an interpreter who speaks your language.

About FEMA Individual Assistance

For needs not covered by insurance or other sources, FEMA may be able to provide Individual Assistance grant money that does not have to be repaid for:

- Rental Assistance if you need to relocate because of flood damage
- Personal Property that was damaged or destroyed by flooding
- Lodging Reimbursement if you've had to stay in a hotel temporarily
- Basic Home Repairs for homeowners whose primary residence was damaged by flooding
- Other Serious Needs caused by recent flooding

In addition to the assistance listed, please note the following:

- Only one application per household
- FEMA does not pay for lost or spoiled food.
- FEMA works with everyone – renters and homeowners – on a case-by-case basis.
- By law, FEMA is not allowed to duplicate insurance payments or assistance provided by other sources.
