

Additional Counties Approved for FEMA Public Assistance

Release Date: October 11, 2022

TALLAHASSEE –Orange and Osceola counties are eligible for FEMA Public Assistance for the repair or replacement of disaster-damaged public facilities. Those counties were previously approved for debris removal and emergency protective measures.

Brevard County is now eligible for debris removal and repair or replacement of disaster-damaged public facilities. Brevard County was previously approved for emergency protective measures.

FEMA

Page 1 of 1