WASHINGTON -- The Emergency Food and Shelter Program (EFSP) National Board voted on Thursday, Dec. 22, 2022, to allocate $38.9 million to 21 local governments and service organizations to assist with humanitarian needs related to migrant families and individuals encountered by the Department of Homeland Security at the U.S. southern border. With this step, all $75 million (less administrative expenses) in FY23 Continuing Resolution (CR) Emergency Food and Shelter Program - Humanitarian (EFSP-H) funds have been allocated by the EFSP National Board.

On Dec. 13, 2022, the EFSP National Board awarded $31.7 million of the $75 million award to 18 groups, and on Dec. 22, 2022, the National Board awarded $39 million of the $75 million award to 21 groups. Funding was prioritized for those service organizations in the southern border states with the most urgent needs. Some funding was also allocated to non-border entities that play an important role in assisting migrants as they relocate to other locations. It takes up to three weeks for disbursement of funds.
