

Disaster Recovery Center Opens in Porterville

Release Date: August 1, 2023

A Disaster Recovery Center has opened in Porterville to help residents affected by the severe winter storms.

The center is located at:

Tule River Justice Center

Conference Room 138

129 South Reservation Road

Porterville, CA 93257

Hours of operation: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily

Specialists at the center will be able to help survivors with their FEMA applications and provide information on SBA low-interest loans and other available assistance. No appointment is needed.

However, residents don't have to visit a Disaster Recovery Center to sign up for FEMA assistance. They can go to DisasterAssistance.gov, use the FEMA Mobile app or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. Helpline operators can assist in many languages. The Helpline is available from 4 a.m. to 10 p.m. PDT. Anyone using the video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others will need to give FEMA their number for that service.
