

President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. Approves Major Disaster Declaration for Wyoming

Release Date: September 11, 2023

WASHINGTON -- FEMA announced that federal disaster assistance has been made available to the state of Wyoming to supplement recovery efforts in the areas affected by flooding on June 15, 2023.

Public Assistance federal funding is available to the state, eligible local governments and certain private nonprofit organizations on a cost-sharing basis for emergency work and the repair or replacement of facilities damaged by flooding in Natrona County.

Federal funding is also available on a cost-sharing basis for hazard mitigation measures statewide.

Jon. K. Huss has been named as the Federal Coordinating Officer for federal recovery operations in the affected area. Additional designations may be made at a later date if requested by the state and warranted by the results of further assessments.
