

FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance Crews in Communities

Release Date: June 24, 2024

OKLAHOMA CITY – FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance crews are going door-to-door in Blaine, Caddo, Custer, Delaware, Jackson, Mayes, Muskogee and Rogers counties to meet with residents affected by the May 19-28 storms and tornadoes.

These crews can help you apply for FEMA assistance, identify needs and make connections with local, state, federal and voluntary agencies. They can also:

- Provide flyers explaining how to apply for assistance
- Check the status of an application and make minor changes
- Contact community groups, faith-based organizations and businesses that can distribute information about disaster assistance
- Identify organizations providing recovery-related services or resources
- Gather information about impacts to communities
- Share civil rights and disability integration resources to ensure equal access

FEMA staff carry a badge with their photograph, and will never ask for money. If you meet people offering assistance, ask to see their ID before giving any personal information.

To apply for FEMA assistance:
