Disaster Assistance for West Virginia Survivors of Early April Storms Tops $5 Million

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – More than $5 million has been approved for homeowners and renters in West Virginia after the severe storms, straight-line winds, tornadoes, flooding, landslides, and mudslides of April 2-6, 2024. Federal disaster assistance is available to residents of 11 counties: Boone, Cabell, Fayette, Kanawha, Lincoln, Marshall, Nicholas, Ohio, Putnam, Wayne and Wetzell. Survivors can apply for assistance by visiting www.disasterassistance.gov or visiting a Disaster Recovery Center (DRC).

FEMA and the Small Business Administration continue response and recovery efforts to support West Virginians who were impacted by the storm on April 2-6. Survivors are encouraged to register for assistance before the deadline on July 22, 2024.

To date:

- FEMA has received more than 2,129 registrations for assistance.
- More than 961 survivors have already been approved for more than $5.02 million in assistance from FEMA.
- Of that amount, $3.19 million is approved for housing assistance and $1.83 million is approved for other needs assistance.
