Less Than Two Weeks Left to Apply for FEMA Individual Assistance and Small Business Administration Low Interest Loans

Release Date: February 25, 2025

LOS ANGELES – Homeowners, renters and businesses in Los Angeles County who experienced property damage or losses from the January wildfires have less than two weeks left to apply for federal disaster assistance. Monday, March 10, is the last day to apply for both FEMA disaster assistance and a U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) low-interest disaster loan. This deadline will not impact applications that have already been started.

Apply for FEMA Individual Assistance

- Online at DisasterAssistance.gov.
- On the FEMA App.
- By calling the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. If you use a relay service, give FEMA your number for that service. Assistance is available in multiple languages. Lines are open Sunday–Saturday, from 7 a.m.- 1 a.m. Eastern.
- At a Disaster Recovery Center (DRC). To locate a DRC near you, visit the DRC Locator.

Disaster Recovery Centers are physically accessible to people with disabilities and others with access and functional needs. They are equipped with assistive technology and other resources to help ensure all applicants can access resources.
