

Two Additional Florida Counties Designated for Individual Assistance

Release Date: September 16, 2017

Two additional Florida counties, Alachua and Santa Fe, have been designated for individual assistance under the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Individual and Family Assistance program. This designation allows eligible individuals in these counties to apply for and receive financial assistance for disaster-related expenses, such as temporary housing, food, clothing, and other necessities. FEMA will continue to work with state and local officials to ensure that assistance is distributed quickly and effectively to those in need.

Individuals in Alachua and Santa Fe counties who are eligible for assistance should contact FEMA at 1-800-475-5764 or visit DisasterAssistance.gov for more information. FEMA will continue to provide support and resources to help these communities recover from the impact of the disaster.

FEMA is committed to providing timely and effective assistance to disaster-affected communities. For more information on FEMA's disaster relief programs, visit FEMA.gov or call 1-800-475-5764.
