

Public Assistance Appeal Process

If FEMA denies your request for Public Assistance, you can appeal the decision. All appeals must be in writing, meet required deadlines, and include:

All relevant documentation supporting the applicant's position

The specific funding amount in dispute, as applicable

Citation to any relevant laws, regulations, or policies that support your appeal

FEMA

Learn More

Contact your state or local emergency management agency or visit us online at fema.gov/assistance/public

For more information on the appeal process: fema.gov/assistance/public/audits-arbitration-appeals

