

FRANKFORT, Ky. – FEMA: Serious Needs Assistance New Benefit Kentucky, May 21-27

Release Date: May 2, 2024

FRANKFORT, Ky. – FEMA announced serious needs assistance new benefit for Kentucky residents affected by the May 21-27 tornadoes. FEMA will provide financial assistance to help cover the cost of repairs and replacement of damaged property. This assistance is available to individuals who have suffered a major disaster and are unable to repair or replace damaged property. For more information, visit www.fema.gov or call 1-800-475-5764.

Individuals who have suffered a major disaster and are unable to repair or replace damaged property may be eligible for serious needs assistance. This assistance is available to individuals who have suffered a major disaster and are unable to repair or replace damaged property. For more information, visit www.fema.gov or call 1-800-475-5764.

For more information, visit www.fema.gov or call 1-800-475-5764.

- FEMA will provide financial assistance to help cover the cost of repairs and replacement of damaged property.
- This assistance is available to individuals who have suffered a major disaster and are unable to repair or replace damaged property.
- For more information, visit www.fema.gov or call 1-800-475-5764.

FEMA

