

State/FEMA Disaster Recovery Center in Charlton County Closes Saturday

Release Date: Tháng 10 11, 2017

BRUNSWICK, Ga. — The Georgia Emergency Management Agency and the Federal Emergency Management Agency are closing the Charlton County mobile Disaster Recovery Center (DRC) in Folkston this Saturday.

Survivors have until 6 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, to visit the DRC in Folkston.

Working with county officials, GEMA and FEMA closely monitor visits to DRCs. Centers close when traffic slows at those locations. This allows centers to open in new areas.

The center is located at:

426 Rosa Parks Rd. Folkston, GA 31537

Hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. through Saturday, Oct. 14.

Survivors can visit any Disaster Recovery Center. To locate the nearest center, use the FEMA mobile app or visit www.fema.gov/drc.

DRCs are accessible facilities survivors can visit to speak face-to-face with representatives from the state, FEMA, SBA, and other recovery partners. Services available at the DRCs include:

- Check on the status of your application,
- Ask questions about a FEMA determination letter and how to appeal a decision by FEMA,
- Get help applying for SBA disaster loans,
- Ask questions about flood insurance and hazard mitigation techniques.
