

Talk to Specialists About Making Your Home Hazard Resistant April 30-May 5

Release Date: Tháng 4 27, 2018

As Texans repair, rebuild, and prepare for future disasters, home improvement stores are partnering with FEMA mitigation specialists to provide free information to help individuals make informed decisions.

Mitigation specialists will be on hand to answer questions, offer tips and techniques on how to repair and build hazard-resistant homes using proven methods to reduce damage.

Specialists will also talk about preparedness for multiple types of disasters. Topics covered will include making a family disaster plan, disaster supply kits and the importance of flood insurance. FEMA mitigation specialists will be available at these stores:
