

FEMA Extends Deadline to Apply for Federal Disaster Assistance

Release Date: Tháng 2 12, 2022

FRANKFORT, Ky. – Kentucky homeowners and renters who suffered uninsured or underinsured damage to their property from the Dec. 10-11, 2021 storms and tornadoes have another month to apply for federal disaster assistance.

FEMA has extended the application deadline to Monday, March 14 for survivors in Barren, Caldwell, Christian, Fulton, Graves, Hart, Hickman, Hopkins, Logan, Lyon, Marion, Marshall, Muhlenberg, Ohio, Taylor and Warren counties. Those who have already applied to FEMA for Dec. 10-11 tornado damage need not apply again.

FEMA assistance for individuals affected by the tornadoes can cover rental assistance, temporary housing, home repairs, personal property losses and other disaster-related needs not covered by insurance. FEMA grants do not have to be repaid. FEMA assistance is nontaxable and will not affect eligibility for Social Security, Medicaid or other federal benefits.

To apply, visit DisasterAssistance.gov, use the FEMA mobile app or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. Helpline operators are available 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. CST daily. Press 2 for Spanish. Press 3 for other languages. If you use a relay service such as video relay service (VRS) or captioned telephone service, give FEMA the number for that service. On your smart phone, open the FEMA App and select “Talk to FEMA in person.”

You may also visit a FEMA disaster recovery center to apply. Find the nearest recovery center by visiting www.fema.gov/drc or calling the FEMA Helpline.
