

Mobile Disaster Recovery Center Open in Hinds County

Release Date: Tháng 6 19, 2024

MADISON, Miss. – The Mississippi Emergency Management Agency (MEMA) and FEMA have opened a Mobile Disaster Recovery Center in Hinds County to help survivors affected by the April 8-11, 2024, severe storms, tornadoes and flooding.

Specialists from FEMA, the State of Mississippi and the U.S. Small Business Administration will be at the center to help survivors apply for federal disaster assistance, check the status of their application, answer questions and provide referrals to resources.

The center is located at:

Cleon McKnight Tennis Center parking lot at Hinds Community College (look for the FEMA signage)
605 Hinds Blvd.
Raymond, MS 39154

The center is open:

- Monday through Friday; 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
- Saturday; 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Sunday; closed.

This center will close permanently at 6 p.m. on June 25, 2024, but will relocate to serve another location in Hinds County.

It is not necessary to visit a center to apply for assistance. Survivors can apply for FEMA assistance by going online to DisasterAssistance.gov, downloading the FEMA mobile app or calling the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. If you use video relay service, captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service.

FEMA
