

Final Days to Register with FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers to Close

Release Date: Tháng 9 13, 2024

Cape Girardeau, MO – Missourians in the counties of Barry, Butler, Carter, Howell, New Madrid, Ripley, Scott, Shannon, Stoddard and Texas who were impacted by the severe weather and flooding from May 19 – 27 have until Monday, Sept. 23, 2024, to apply with FEMA for assistance to support their disaster recovery.

In addition to the registration deadline, both Disaster Recovery Centers (DRC) in Doniphan and Sikeston will permanently close on Friday, Sept. 20 at 6 p.m. Their hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Although the DRCs are closing Sept. 20, impacted residents still will be able to apply online at www.disasterassistance.gov or via phone at 1-800-621-FEMA (3362) daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. local time until the registration deadline on Monday, Sept. 23.

The Doniphan DRC is located at the Ripley County Caring Community Partnership building, 209 West Highway St. The Sikeston DRC is located at the YMCA 511 Taylor St.

DRCs are a one-stop shop for disaster survivors who have applied with FEMA and need to provide additional documentation or have questions about the status of their cases.

Disaster assistance is available to eligible homeowners, renters and self-employed business owners under FEMA's Individuals and Households Program. Even if you have homeowner's or renter's insurance, you still may be eligible for federal grant funding to cover your uninsured losses.

- FEMA grants do not have to be repaid.
- FEMA assistance is tax-free.

- FEMA assistance does not affect Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits or other federal welfare and entitlement programs.

Here's how to apply:

- Online: www.disasterassistance.gov OR
- Phone: 800-621-3362 (FEMA) OR
- Download and use the FEMA app

Anyone using a relay service, such as video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, can give FEMA the number for that service. For an accessible video on three ways to apply for FEMA assistance, visit <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LU7wzRjByhI>

When you apply for assistance, please have the following information on hand:

- A current phone number where you can be contacted
- Your address at the time of the disaster and the address where you are now staying
- Your Social Security number, if available
- A general list of damage and losses
- If insured, the policy number or the agent and/or the company name
