Direct Temporary Housing

- Linn county has been approved to participate in FEMA's Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Jackson, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA continues licensing qualified Linn County families into temporary housing units.
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.

FEMA

- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor's efforts to find permanent housing and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of Mar. 16, disaster-wide, FEMA has obligated 74 project worksheets and more than $160 million in Public Assistance funding.
